Dear Director Schriro:

On behalf of the crime victims' services community, and the Arizona Criminal Justice Commission, I wanted to thank you and the Department of Corrections staff for all of your efforts in collecting $78,213.16 from the inmates for the crime victim compensation program. In this time of fiscal crisis, all funds are critically needed and are very much appreciated. As we battle to maintain our own programs, sometimes we forget to thank those who continue to make the effort to improve things. But we sincerely appreciate your efforts and I apologize for the delay in thanking you properly for the dedication you continue to show to the people of Arizona.

We also recognize the benefits of this program in your overall restorative justice efforts and we applaud your work in this area, it makes a difference in Arizona.

Again, thank you.
